As you look through this book, lean back and remember...before your eyes will appear your experiences of the past year at D.H.S.

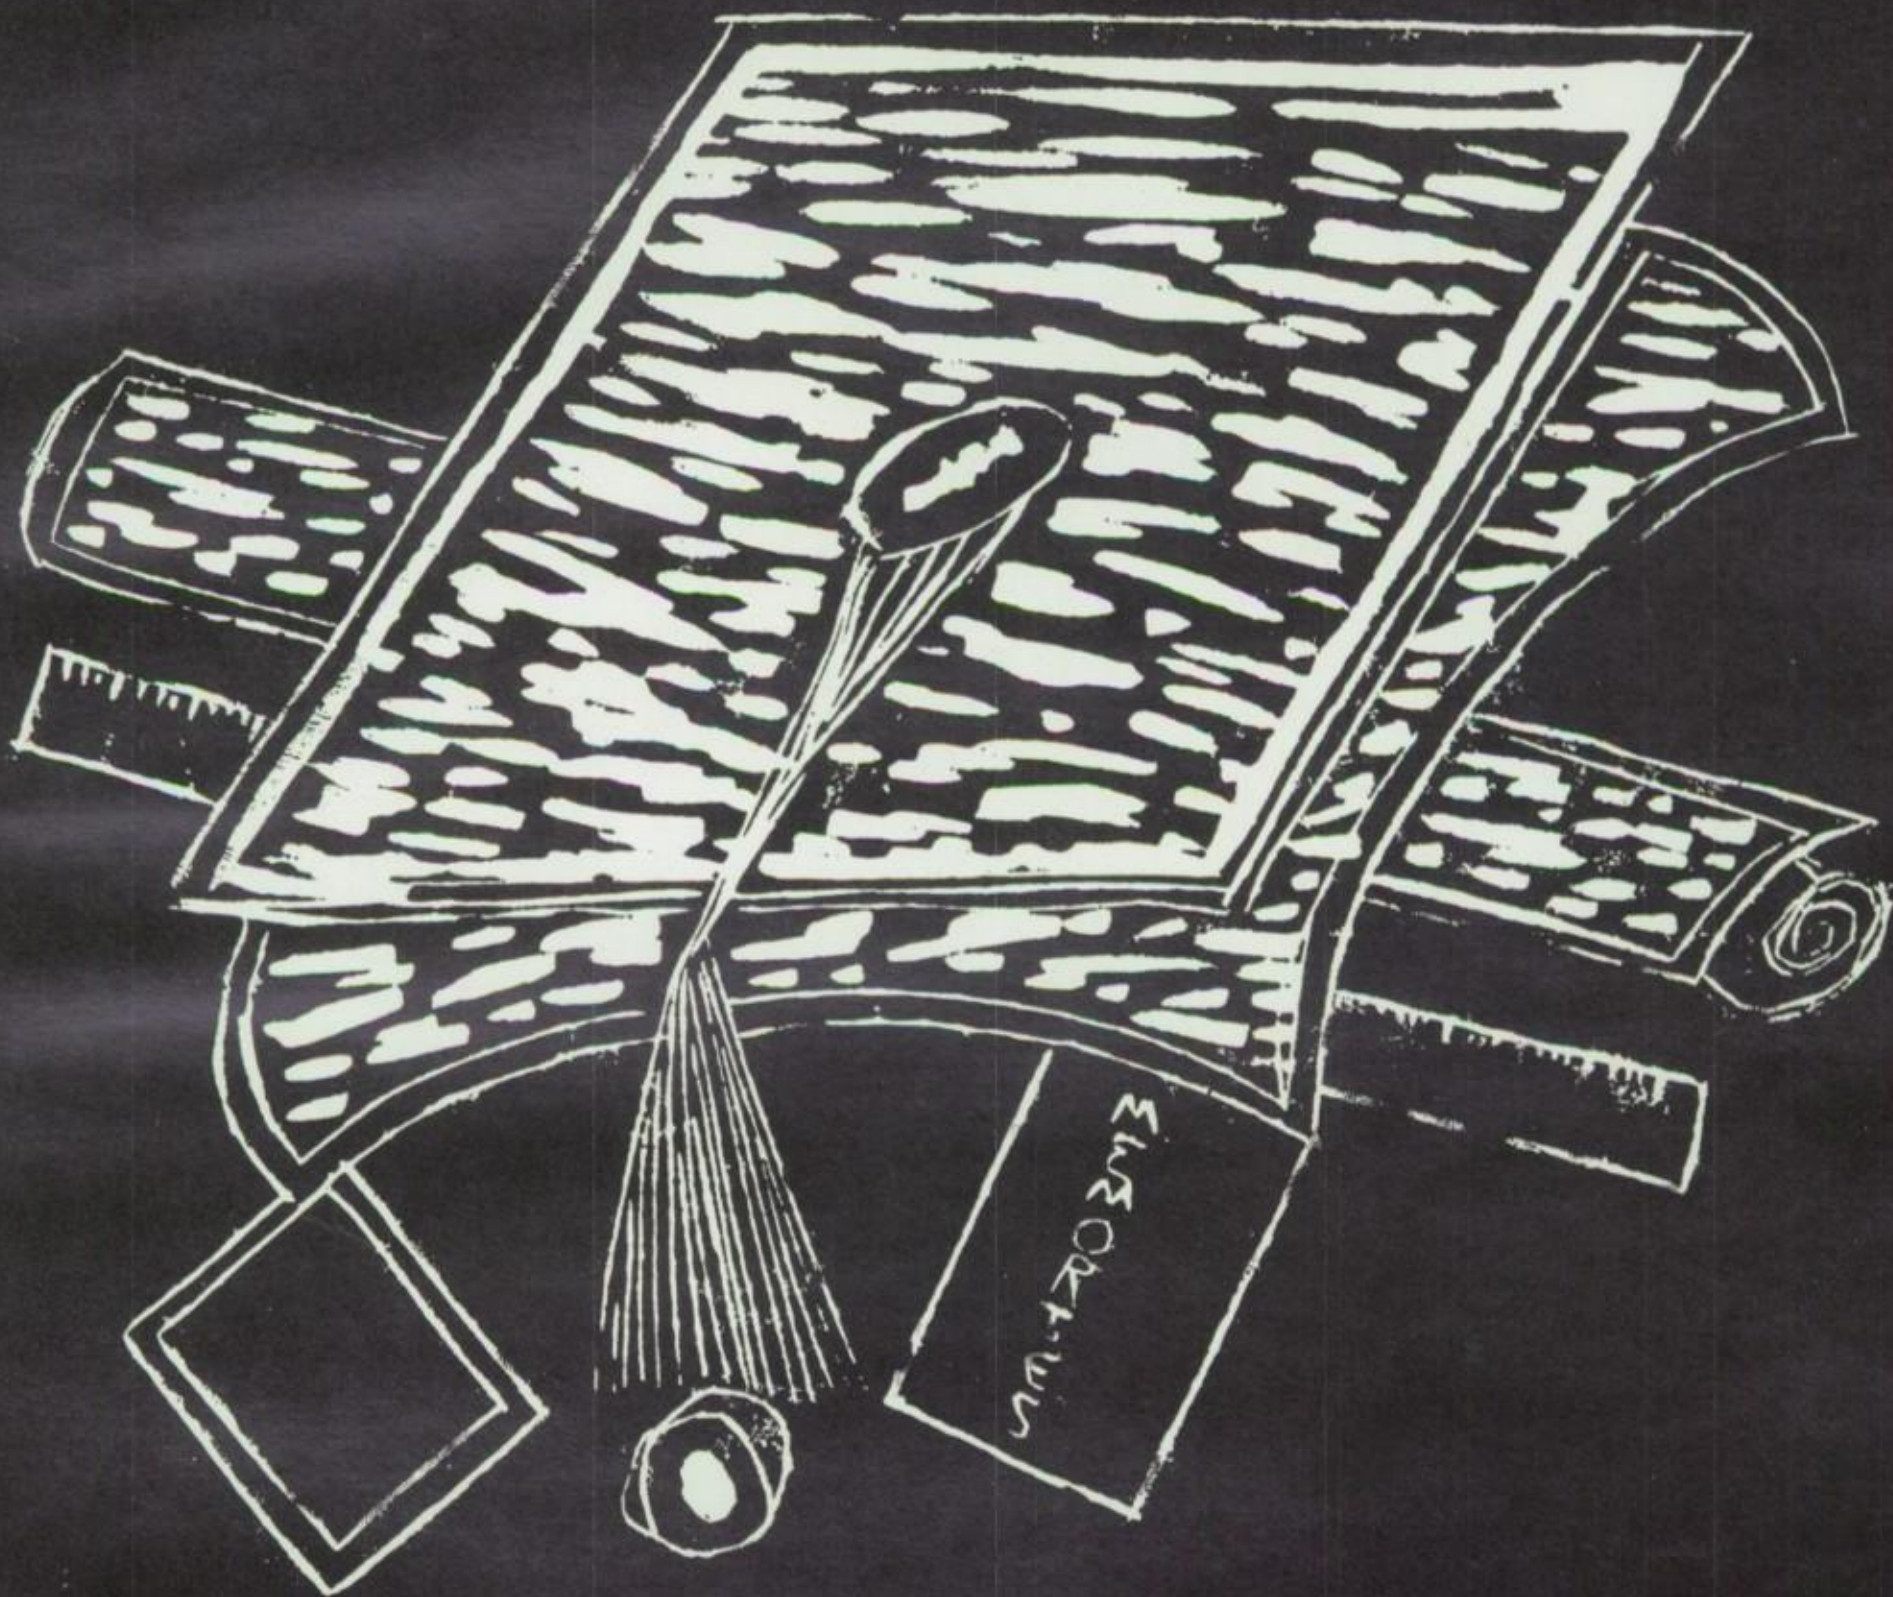

...bits and snatches of memories... forgotten nick names... cheering at games ... riding the spectator bus... the sweet victories... the sour defeats... ...only the minutes and pictures that are unimportant... never the ones that are important...always late to class... never on time... tardy slips...detentions problems to cope with...mad rush to the mess hall... ...the fads... jeans... clogs... smocks... baggies... wire rims... class rings... awards... the broken promises...the thinking that hurts... the failures... the accomplishments... crying... laughing.....

These are the memories that have made the 1972-1973 school year, a year to remember. With this, the class of '73 presents the 1973 Falcon and dedicates it to JANICE HEINEMANN, a member of our class and friend of all, who was killed in an automobile accident December 2, 1969.
